Investing in Poland.

An overview of the current tax system.

The current developments within Central and Eastern European countries are accompanied by ongoing changes in tax systems. For investors, this means numerous new developments to take into account.

TPA's CEE Country Series covers 12 Central and South Eastern European countries, and gives an overview of the business environment and the most important new developments, including:

- Different types of business organisations, and their most important features
- Key details of corporate and personal income tax and VAT in each country
- Current tax allowances, reliefs and concessions
- Core provisions of double taxation agreements

In the TPA-Country Series there are booklets on Albania, Austria, Bulgaria, Croatia, the Czech Republic, Hungary, Montenegro, Poland, Romania, Serbia, Slovakia and Slovenia. Visit our website www.tpa-group.com, for detailed information and updates, or subscribe to our electronic newsletter at service@tpa-group.com

The information in these folders is based on the present legal situation and current administrative practice, and is therefore subject to change. The information is general in nature, and of necessity abridged: the booklets are not a substitute for individual, specific advice.

Our CEE experts will be happy to answer your questions in more detail.

Financial year	Calendar year; different financial year possible, but must be indicated in the tax return submitted for the tax year preceding the first tax year after the change
Accounting	In general, double-entry bookkeeping as specified in the Accounting Act
Loss set-offs / carryforwards	Possible, subject to set off / carryforward limits; carryforwards over 5 years, generally with an annual maximum of 50%, with the balance in following years; no loss carrybacks. The taxpayer also has the possibility to reduce income from one source of revenue once in one of next five consecutive tax years by an amount not exceeding PLN 5,000,000 Furthermore, last set-offs and carryforwards are possible only within each of the two income sources – income derived from capital gains and the remaining income (from business activity and special branches of agriculture). An exception applies for banks and other financial institutions whose whole income falls into one sources.
Associated parties	The term “related entities” is interpreted as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> an entity which has a significant impact on another entity, the same entity or a natural person (e.g. spouse or a close relative, as specified by the law) has significant impact on both entities, a partnership and its partners,

Operating expenses	Expenses incurred in connection with the generation of income, maintaining or securing the source of income. Costs of immaterial services incurred, directly or indirectly, for the benefit of related parties or entities situated in jurisdictions with harmful tax competition may not be recognized as tax-deductible costs in the amount exceeding 5% of EBITDA calculated according to the rules provided by the CIT law. The limitation does not apply to costs not exceeding PLN 3 million. The catalogue of services affected includes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> advisory, marketing, market research, management, control, data processing, insurance, guarantees, bails and similar services payments for the use of fictitious and legal assets transfer of the debtor’s insolvency risk as regards non-banking loans
Transfer prices	1. Transfer prices between related entities <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The law now features direct regulation stating that related parties must set the transfer prices in a way that would be established between unrelated entities. If this is not the case and the taxpayer recognizes lower income (higher tax loss), then the tax authority determines the income (tax loss) in a way that does not take into consideration the transaction terms agreed. The tax authority also has the right to determine the taxpayer’s income (tax loss) by skipping a transaction, or by taking into consideration the tax consequences of another, hypothetical (“appropriate”) transaction, if it ascertains that a given transaction would not have been conducted by unrelated parties, or that they would have concluded another, “appropriate” one. Transfer prices are verified using one of these methods: the comparable uncontrolled price method, the resale price method, the cost plus method, the transactional net margin method or the profit split method. If impossible, another method may be used, though it must be the most fitting under given circumstances. The tax authority is obliged to apply the method used by the taxpayer unless another method is more fitting. The taxpayer may undertake a TP adjustment, if certain formal conditions specified by the CIT law are met.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ The law now features safe harbours for low value added services and loans – which means that the tax authority will stay away from assessing the taxpayer’s income (tax loss) if certain formal conditions specified by the CIT law are met. ▪ There exists a regulation stating that, under certain conditions, the income (tax loss) of a local taxpayer is adjusted if a foreign tax authority has ascertained that the income of a local taxpayer constitutes income of a foreign taxpayer. This adjustment serves the purpose of avoiding double taxation.
	2. Transfer pricing documentation (“TPD”) The obligation to prepare the TPD depends on the net value and type of the transactions. The transaction threshold are the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ PLN 10,000,000 - for commodity or financial transactions, ▪ PLN 2,000,000 – for the performance of services and for other transactions (except those below), ▪ PLN 100,000 – for transactions conducted with tax haven-based entities, ▪ PLN 500,000 – for transactions conducted with entities whose beneficial owner is tax haven-based. When the net value of the transaction exceeds an appropriate threshold the taxpayer is obliged to prepare TPD in the form of a local file (detailed information about transaction and parties, including particular elements specified in the CIT law) which includes a comparability analysis (benchmarking study). When consolidated revenues of the capital group exceed PLN 200,000,000, or when a consolidated financial statement is prepared, the taxpayer must also have TPD in the form of a master file. There is a possibility to obtain a master file prepared by other entity from capital group in English (translation into Polish must be delivered at the tax authorities’ request within 30 days). Simplifications available (most important): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ no obligation to prepare TPD for transactions between Polish companies without tax losses and which do not enjoy CIT exemptions (the lack of tax losses requirement does not have to be met if a related party’s total revenue in 2020 are at least 50% lower than the total revenues obtained in 2019), ▪ no obligation to prepare TPD for transactions subject to an Advances Pricing Agreement (APA), ▪ no obligation to prepare benchmarking analyses for low value added services and loans under certain conditions. Additional obligations for taxpayers obliged to prepare local files – the requirement to provide the tax authorities, in an electronic form and without their request: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ with a written statement that TPD for the given tax year has been prepared and that the terms of all transactions subject to local files are at arm’s length – within the deadline to prepare local files, ▪ with the information on transfer prices applied by the taxpayer (form TP-R) – within the deadline to prepare local files.

	The latter also applies to taxpayer whose transactions do not trigger the TPD obligation due to the available simplifications – most notably on the case of APAs and the transactions between Polish companies without tax losses. Polish parent entities consolidating financial statements of the group in the case last year’s consolidated revenues of the group exceeded EUR 750 million need to prepare and submit a country-by-country report (information on global allocation of income and taxes) – within 12 months after the end of the given tax year. Generally speaking, other entities being part of such a group file a country-by-country notification indicating who the report filing party is. The deadline for preparing TPD is: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ 9 months from the end of the fiscal year for local files, and ▪ 12 months for master files. TPD must be delivered to the tax authorities within 7 days of their request. The difference between the income declared by the taxpayer and assessed by the tax authority is taxed with CIT at the rate applicable for a given taxpayer, with an additional tax sanction amounting to 10% of the unrecognized income. In the case of the lack of the TPD, the sanction’s rate is: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ doubled, ▪ when the unrecognized income exceeds PLN 15 million - tripled, but the tripled rate applies only to the excess tax sanction over the sanction calculated on the basis of the additional income up to PLN 15 million. Advanced pricing agreements (APA) are available.
Interest on financing of acquisition	Generally deductible
Thin capitalization limitations	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Applies to financing received both from related and unrelated parties ▪ The surplus of debt financing costs exceeding 30% of EBITDA set according to criteria from the CIT law may not be recognized as tax-deductible costs ▪ The limitation does not apply to the surplus not exceeding PLN 3 million and to financial enterprises ▪ The surplus may be settled within the next five years, though all limitations do apply.
Tax depreciation	Tax depreciation: rates for individual asset types or classes defined by tax law. Under commercial law, on the basis of the expected useful life Straight-line, reducing balance only for special machinery, equipment and means of transport (excluding cars) 100% depreciation available for low value assets with acquisition costs of up to PLN 10,000 (net of VAT)

Provisions	Accounting provisions are generally not allowable for tax purposes (limited number of very restrictive exceptions)
Passenger car expenses	Depreciation: 20% straight-line Depreciation, operating leasing rental costs and insurance costs of purchased or leased cars attributable to acquisition cost exceeding PLN 150,000 net of VAT (for electric cars PLN 225,000) constitute non-tax deductible costs. Cars' operation expenses are deductible only in 75% if the vehicle is also used for purposes not connected to the business conducted by the taxpayer (mainly - for private purposes). 100% of VAT deductible if the car is used exclusively for business purposes (relevant strict evidence required). If used for business and private purposes and/or no evidence is maintained – 50% of input VAT is deductible. The remaining 50% part of input VAT constitutes tax deductible costs.
Non-deductible expenses	Examples (complete list in Article 16 of the Corporate Income Tax Act) Depreciation and insurance costs of purchased or leased cars if their value exceeds PLN 150,000 net of VAT (for electric car – PLN 225,000) 25% of car operation expenses if they are used also for private purposes Accrued interest and exchange differences (if accounting rules are chosen for tax purposes, unrealised exchange differences may become tax deductible) The majority of provisions made in the financial accounts Entertainment and promotional costs, especially hospitality, purchase of food and drink (incl. alcohol) All payments exceeding PLN 15,000 (approx. EUR 3,333) made in cash or made to the bank account not indicated in the white list, or despite the indication "split payment mechanism" on the invoice - made without the split payment mechanism.
Withholding tax	Where liability to tax is limited, withholding tax of 19% or 20% is deducted. Applicable DTA can provide for income to be exempt from taxation or for taxes to be set off. Starting from: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ June 2021 – as regards interest, dividends and other payments subject to WHT (excluding those specified in the bullet below),

The refund application will have to contain law-listed documents (such as the certificate of residence, payment confirmations etc.). Exceptions allowing the WHT remitter not to apply the domestic WHT rate and use the exemption / more favourable rate from the DTA: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ the WHT remitter has provided the tax authority with a written statement testifying to the lack of obstacles from using the more favourable WHT taxation – to be filed as at the payment date at the latest, ▪ the taxpayer / the WHT remitter (if it shall pay the WHT from its own funds) will obtain a special written opinion of the tax authority (the cost for issuing the opinion amounts to PLN 2,000 and it is valid for 36 months).

Tax concessions for entrepreneurs	There is a possibility to obtain up to 15 years of tax exemption from CIT or PIT, the range and scale of which can be compared to the regulations of Special Economic Zones (SEZ). In comparison with SEZs there is no territorial limitation to apply for the tax relief. Investors who have gained access to SEZ, can apply for the new relief after 2026 when SEZs are phased out. The basis for obtaining the relief is the support decision issued. The relief can be applied for a maximum period of 15 years. The amount of relief, deducted from CIT or PIT, is the equivalent of eligible investment costs or two-year labor costs of newly employed employees. Costs of investments in new technologies entered into books until the end of 2015 can be deducted from taxable income in the proceeding years. At the beginning of 2016 concession for new technologies was replaced by new concession for research and development activities, stated in Article 18d of the Polish CIT Act. It allows the taxpayers to decrease the tax base by the amount of qualified costs connected with R&D. At the beginning of 2017, the catalog of qualified costs has been extended with the costs associated with obtaining a patent, protection right to a utility model and the right resulting from the registration of an industrial design (this regulation applies to micro, small and medium-sized enterprises). From 2018 onwards, the R&D concession was further liberalised to include 100 % of all qualified costs, or even 150 % for R&D centres. The catalogue of qualified costs now included i.a. civil law contracts. Taxpayers operating in Special Economic Zones may make use of the R&D concession, but due to limitations. Innovation Box – income derived from qualified intellectual property right may be taxed with the tax rate of 5%. TPA Group

In tax advisory, auditing and advisory, not only the phrase “other countries, other customs” is valid but also other markets, other legislation, other languages and much more. Therefore, we await you on-site with high-quality consultancy, know-how and an understanding for your individual situation.

Because even if everything else is different, one aspect should remain the same: your corporate success.

The TPA Group is active in twelve countries in Central and South Eastern Europe: Albania, Austria, Bulgaria, Croatia, the Czech Republic, Hungary, Montenegro, Poland, Romania, Serbia, Slovakia and Slovenia.

All our offices and contact persons can be accessed at:
